State Rep. Gary VanDeaver Wins House District 1 Republican Primary

New Boston, TX - State Representative Gary VanDeaver has been declared the winner of the Texas House District 1 Republican Primary with 63% of the total vote. He received the most votes of all three candidates in each county within the newly drawn House District 1. This included 63% of the votes of Bowie County, 69% of the votes in Lamar County, 80% of the votes in Red River County, 60% of the votes in Morris County, and 48% of the votes in Cass County.

Rep. VanDeaver issued the following statement regarding his victory:

“I am so grateful for everyone's prayers, support, and hard work on behalf of this campaign, and I am so proud of what we've accomplished. This campaign was a testament to what good, honest, and positive people can achieve together when they put aside their differences in opinion to advocate for the greater good of our area. I am honored to be able to represent Northeast Texas for another term starting in 2023, and I am glad to continue working with you to build a better future for us all.”

Rep. VanDeaver had received the support and endorsements of the Associated Republicans of Texas (ART), National Rifle Association (NRA), Combined Law Enforcement Associations of Texas (CLEAT), Texas Alliance for Life, Texans for Life, Texas Association of Businesses, Texas Farm Bureau, Texas Forestry, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers, Texas Realtors, Texas Municipal Police Association, Texas Parents, Texas State Teachers Association, Association of Texas Professional Educators, the Charles Butt Public Education PAC, Governor Greg Abbott, and Speaker of the House Dade Phelan.
